Misericordia School of Nursing Education Award

In 1998, the Misericordia School of Nursing established an endowment within the Misericordia Health Centre Foundation in order to provide an education award annually.

This legacy reflects a continuing commitment to excellence in nursing education and in patient/resident care.

This award is provided as a tribute to the school's many faculty, administrative staff and graduates who have made a significant contribution to nursing education and patient/resident care.

What is the education award?

The Misericordia School of Nursing Education Award of $1,000 is given annually to one or more applicants in support of undergraduate or graduate nursing education at any accredited educational institution.

Who can apply?

Any health-care employee in the province of Manitoba enrolled in either an undergraduate or graduate nursing program at any accredited educational institution.

What are the selection criteria?

- Misericordia School of Nursing graduates applying for this award will be given preference.
- The applicant should have worked at least two years in a health-care institution in the province of Manitoba.
- The applicant should have evidence of acceptance into an undergraduate or graduate nursing program at an accredited educational institution.

When is the application deadline?

The application deadline is March 31 of every year. Applicants will be notified by May 30.
